Visits

If you are new to the Grange and live close enough for it to be practical we recommend that you come and visit. Please phone, to arrange a suitable time, and we will be glad to show you round.

Cancellations

We have a sliding scale of cancellation charges to cover lost bookings due to late cancellations. We will waive these if we get a replacement booking for the same period.

Cancellation	Charge
3 months or more before booking	The £250 deposit
Between 2 & 3 months before	50% of fee
Between 1 & 2 months before	75% of fee
Less than 1 month before	Full fee

We also reserve the right to charge for any damage by guests to our property.

To make a booking

First contact us to check availability of dates and make a provisional booking . You can either get the booking forms from our website or by post (please let us know which). We will hold the dates for 2 weeks to give you time to return the forms to us with the deposit (if you need longer please say). Please make cheques payable to the Unstone Grange Trust. We will then send you a letter to confirm your booking, and some more information.

BOOKING INFORMATION

Our Facilities

Unstone Grange is a Victorian house set in nearly 5 acres of beautiful grounds and gardens, which we look after according to organic and permaculture principles.

As a Centre for Personal Creative Growth we want to encourage people to come here to work on consciously moving forward in their own lives in whatever way is appropriate for them at the time.. We welcome group bookings throughout the year

We have 3 group rooms, including the dining room, a good sized kitchen, 10 bedrooms with up to 36 bed spaces, a large barn, a camping field, lawns and gardens.

You can book the Grange in different ways -

Self catered - The group do all their own cooking, and bring their own bed linen:- 2 sheets and a pillowcase per person.

Fully catered - This includes a self-serve breakfast, lunch and evening meal (we do our best to accommodate dietary needs), and drinks and biscuits at break times.

We provide bed linen and do the end of stay cleaning.
